Media Literacy ed eSafety

It is vital to teach pupils and students how/why information ends up on the Internet.

Understanding processes in society, institutions and algorithms empowers them to figure out what is trustworthy.

(Zeynep Tufekci)

Quale approccio a scuola?

- Cultura del dubbio
- Abitudine a non credere alle notizie
- Ogni notizia è incerta
- Le conferme non sono mai abbastanza
- Ogni informazione richiede molte verifiche
- Educare allo scetticismo

vs

- Essere autori
- Usare riferimenti
- Essere autorevoli
- Imparare a porre le giuste domande
- Insegnare le Istituzioni
- Essere corretti e leali
- Insegnare ad essere fallibili
- Essere pronti ai cambiamenti

General objectives of the group:

- to provide teachers with guidance on the subject concerning keeping pupils eSafe while using digital media in education, especially in the context of carrying out eTwinning projects,
- to develop teachers' skills in scope of preparing their own didactic material regarding eSafety that can be used in their teaching practice,
- to share and exchange knowledge on the topic with other teachers.

Target group:

The group is opened for all eTwinners using social media in education, especially those who are actively engaged in carrying out eTwinning projects.
